NEWS of The COUNTY.

BRUSHY CREEK.

Special Correspondence.
 BRUSHY CREEK, Feb. 8.

Dear Herald:
 Beautiful spring is now merging from the fetters of winter, but the confinement was not prolonged at any time during the winter months. Several times during the past two months the weather has been balmy and spring-like. The peach trees are blooming, the birds are singing their mating songs, and farm work is being pushed with zeal.

The high price of cotton caused those who had some of the weevil bait left to take a day off and market same, and they are glad to know they have lived long enough to get 15 cents for cotton. It also has a tendency to make the poor old farmer feel that he is not so much the beast of burden the poets have pictured him. It gives him a new stock of self-confidence, of which commodity he was almost a bankrupt.

Nothing of a startling nature has occurred in these parts since our last writing. Health is improving.

Matt Burgamy has a very sick daughter.

The school has about regained its former prestige. Following are some averages made by pupils for the month ending Jan. 29th: Clara Freeman, .98 2-9; Dick Hathcock, .97 2-9; Thos. Caldwell, .97 1-9; Jess Freeman, .96 5-8; Beulah Whitehead, .95; Sarah Mills, .96; Savilla Lassiter, .95; Retha Freeman, .85; Lizzie Emerson, .95; Alma Emerson, .97. Enrollment for the month, 105. Prof. W. F. Davis, principal; Miss Stella Atkinson, assistant.

The school at Brushy Creek has been in the front rank for a number of years, and we trust it may continue so. We regret the probability of Prof. Davis leaving us at the end of the present term of school. In response to a recent call for teachers to go to the Philippines, he offered his services, which were accepted. He received notice that he was wanted at once, but we cannot let him go now, and do not want him to go at any time. We all love him, and he rather likes us, so he had better stay here and let well enough alone. He can beat that Philippine job here in Brushy Creek or anywhere else in Anderson county that he may care to go.

We can boast of two flourishing Sunday schools here—Baptist and Methodist. The former meets at 10 a. m., with Geo. Lassiter as superintendent, the latter at 2:30 p. m., with Frank Gains as superintendent. The young people take great interest in these schools and the meeting hours afford the opportunity of attending both.

Each Sunday night a singing class meets at the Baptist church. We believe this village should have a library. Let those interested think the matter over.

Some of the Herald correspondents seem to be trying to stir the fire around the political caldron.

Gentlemen, you may rest easy, it will boil soon enough.

For want of something to say, I will quit. FAGIN.

TUCKER.
 Special Correspondence.

TUCKER, Feb. 7.

Editors Herald:
 After being absent for a short while, I shall try to contribute my mite of news.

Our doctor, who has had a very severe attack of la grippe, is up again.

Jim Fields, Jr., has been on the sick list.

'Tis rumored that Henry Glenn and Tom Newsome are going to set up and operate a saw mill at Parker's Bluff, with the intention of sawing ash and oak timber. Hope to see these gentlemen push their enterprise, and wish them success.

Miss Gertrude Grigsby is home after visiting Palestine, Grape-land and Elkhart.

We hope to see a change in our commissioner from this precinct. On the Palestine and Bonner's Ferry road we have had about four days' work by convict labor. This is one of the principal roads of Anderson county, and should be kept in as good condition as possible. It is not now in good condition.

Elkhart has obtained, or will obtain, rural delivery, but if its roads had not have been in good condition they could not have gotten it. We could not get a route established here, although we had the proper number of petitioners, because our roads are not in the required condition. Our overseers cannot put the roads in good condition with the limited means in their control.

Also, there is a bridge, that old sway-back bridge on McClanahan creek, which is badly in need of repairs. We understand that the contract to fix the bridge is out now, and has been for months. We promised to say nothing about this again, but we have anyway. Our commissioner should see why the party who has the contract has not fixed the bridge. We hope to get a commissioner who will give us a small share of the convict labor, if not our full share.

Glad to see so many letters from the correspondents. Hope all will be more regular from now on.

With best wishes to all, I am
 DON QUIXOTE.

LOST CORNER.
 Special Correspondence.

LOST CORNER, Feb. 8.

Dear Editors:
 As nothing has appeared from Lost Corner for some time, I will endeavor to give you the news of this locality. Health is very good at this writing. Everybody is preparing for another crop, regardless of Mr. Boll Weevil. A great many farmers are going to plant King's Improved cotton seed.

Many people have the saw mill fever. We hope it is not contagious. Bill Collins had some symptoms of the fever, and several days ago it developed. Last Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock he loaded his wagon with his family and a few necessities of life and said, "Get up, Eagle," and we have not heard of Bill since. Mr. Nichols says he has had the saw mill fever, but he is going to stay here, for he thinks he has the boll weevil bested.

Dud Fairris has nearly completed his new dwelling. We learn that Tom Axum is at work for Dud Fairris.

We miss the presence of Dunk McNeil at Cedar Creek. Dunk is making his home at Cleburne, Johnson county.

Well, as there is no more news to report, will ring off.

LITTLE BARLOW.

CAYUGA.
 Special Correspondence.

CAYUGA, Feb. 8, 1904.

Editors Herald:

Will come again for a short chat, and to let you know that I am still in the land of the living and passing away the time as well as one could in a peaceable and prosperous neighborhood.

Health of the community is good.

Farmers of this section are moving along nicely with their work. They realize that if they beat the boll weevil they will have to get up and hustle and they are about it diligently.

Well, Greenie, will say I am not a candidate for office.

The Judson Singing Class met yesterday at Mrs. Brown's, and elected delegates to the singing convention to be held at Concord in March.

Messrs. Beasley and Berryman of Montalba were here last week on a fishing and hunting expedition. Come again, gentlemen.

Mrs. M. E. Barton has moved into her new residence, which, when completed, will be attractive and comfortable.

A children's party at the home of Mrs. Mildred Brown last Saturday night was largely attended by big boys and girls and little ones, too.

Tom Youngblood of Kerens is visiting friends and relatives here. Little Girl had quite a thrilling experience not long since in killing a wolf one hundred and seventy-five yards away with a 38-caliber Winchester, and shot at another one that was still farther off, but with the start it had am satisfied it out ran the bullet.

With best wishes to all, I am
 LITTLE GIRL.

WATTS SCHOOL HOUSE.
 Special Correspondence.

WATTS SCHOOL HOUSE, Feb. 7.

Dear Herald:
 Will try again to fill our little space. Health is improving, although many have measles.

We are proud to see so many of our old correspondents coming to the front again, for the fact that we are always glad to read the news of surrounding communities. We think this a fine system for circulating the news to our country homes. Some seem to take a great interest in so doing, though we would be glad to see more interested in this matter.

We have been having some real cool weather for the past week, though the farmers seem to enjoy it all the more. Last year just at this time they could hardly get into their fields. They are taking advantage of the sunshine lest there might yet come hovering over them the snowy clouds of a winter's season.

We wish to note that the public road leading from Neches to the oil field was worked a few days ago, and those wishing to purchase oil lands will find it to their interest to intersect and view the fertile lands crossed and lined by said road.

Everything seems to be moving along smoothly, with bright hopes of a successful year's work.

Several of the young folks attended the party at Mr. M. Stewart's last Friday night.

Success to the Herald. J. J.
